DATA

This project will use two main ingredients: neighborhood data from Foursquares and Happy City Criteria from "Happy City". For neighborhood data, a nearby building search will be used mainly to find the facility around. Then, we check with the Happy City Criteria and calculate how much score it should have according to the theory.